"That's the problem with drinking,
I thought, as I poured myself a drink.
If something bad happens you drink
in an attempt to forget;
if something good happens you drink
in order to celebrate;
and if nothing happens you drink
to make something happen."

- Charles Bukowski,
from the book "Women"

"Food is good for the nerves and the spirit.
Courage comes from the belly -
all else is desperation."

- Charles Bukowski,
from the book "Post Office"
